SALE TO PICK SITE FOR STATE ENCAMPMENT

Froons Will Go to Ronnoke on Vir-ginta Bench From May 29 to June 3.

Final selection of the annual training camp for the officers of the Virkinia Volunteers was left yesterday by the Military Board, which met in the office of the Governor to discuss this and other matters pertaining to the State's military affairs, to Adjutant-General W W Sale. Members of the board, however, indicated that the choice should be between Roanoke and Virginla Beach.

Though Boards is favored for the

Though Roanoke is favored for the suson that it is the more central point and affords excellent facilities for caring for the men, the probabilities are that Virginia Beach will be the choice that Virghela Beach will be the choice of the Adjutant-General. The State rifle range is located here, and it is considered necessary that rifle practice should engage the attention of the men at this time. And then conditions in Mexico make it impossible for the War Department to detail as many officer instructors as the State authorities would like to have. Practice on the rifle range seems to offer the best way out of the difficulty. way out of the difficulty.

More than fifty of the old soldiers representing R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, W. B. Woolridge Camp, and Joseph E. Johnston Camp, are expected to make the trip to the Alabama city.

Governor Stuart yesterday commuted to life imprisonment George Miller, colored, who was under sentence of death for murder. Miller, who was to have been put to death on June 2, was convicted at the January, 1916, term of the Hustings Court of Pittsylvania County. The commutation was granted upon the recommendation of Judge Harvey and Commonwealth's Attorney Dillard, who stated in a letter to the Governor that the negro was of weak mentality, and that the evidence was of a circumstantial nature. They stated that they were confident the ends of justice would be met by life ends of justice would be met by life
